Pyramid Dedicated to Mr. Vroman

The 1982-83 edition of the Pyramid is proudly dedicated to Mr. David C. Vroman, PCHS Band and Chorus Director for the past five years. In his tenure the band had numerous first place finishes in parades and field shows primarily in Southern Illinois at such events as the Rend Lake Festival Parade, the Murphysboro Apple Festival, the Sweetcorn and Watermelon Festival at Mt. Vernon, the Old King Coal Festival at West Frankfort and the Little Egypt Festival at Salem. The band also participated in events at the University of Illinois, Illinois State University, Eastern Illinois University and Southern Illinois University under Mr. Vroman's direction. As well, major events for the band included performances at Busch Stadium for the St. Louis Football Cardinals in 1981 and a performing trip to the 1982 World's Fair at Knoxville, Tennessee.

Mr. Vroman, a native of East Peoria, IL came to Pinckneyville High School after finishing his undergraduate degree in music education at Western Illinois University at Macomb. In this his first teaching position, he established himself as a teacher of high disciplinary standards and worked to build a quality band program which involved over one hundred students in the Marching Panthers and approximately seventy in Concert Band.

This year marked Mr. Vroman's last at PCHS with his resignation coming at the end of the year. He will further his education, pursuing his Master's Degree in Music Education at the University of Illinois. The Yearbook Staff recognizes with appreciation Mr. Vroman's contribution to PCHS during his time here and wishes him well in his further endeavors.

Freshmen Get Off to a Good Start

The Freshman class began their high school years with a good start. They raised money by selling calendars and candy. They elected Mike Chapman as their class president. Lisa Hougland as Vice-President, and Amy Mathenia as Secretary-Treasurer. The freshmen also elected five Student Council members: Rosie Brand, Karla Denman, Clint Hawkins, Matt Mason, and Tom Odom. Lisa Hougland and Paul Hill represented the Freshman class at the Christmas Dance.

Sophomores Sell Jewelry and Records.

The Sophomore class raised money this year with record and tape sales and by selling jewelry. They elected Sam Carney as their class president, Rhonda Perky as Vice-President, and Kim Davis as Secretary-Treasurer. Five Student Council members were elected also, Lisa Dinkins, Amy Place, Brad Shotton, Leanna Timpner, and Bobby Yates. The Sophomore class was represented at the Christmas Dance by Lisa Dinkins and Bobby Yates. Sixteen of the sophomores were honored by being chosen to serve at the Prom.

Juniors Have Active Year, Plan "Magic Moments" Prom

The Junior class started their third year at P.C.H.S. by participating in the Homecoming activities. They re-elected Colleen Hiller, Cheri Thomas, and Brian Voorhees as class officers and Mary Beth Hagene, Angie Lambert, Gayla Miller, Dana Morgenthaler, and Brian Voorhees as student council members. Junior Class Congress members and calendar girls were also selected. The junior class was represented by Gayla Miller, Cheryl Schwarz, and Lisa Wilson as Homecoming Queen candidates and by Diana Jarrett and Hanno Allolio at the Christmas Dance.

To raise money, the juniors sold placemats, candles, Christmas items, and other assorted items. They also sold Pinckneyville Panther mugs. They were excited about receiving their class rings and also about planning the 1983 prom. The members of the class of '84 are looking forward to their last year at P.C.H.S.

Seniors Complete Memorable Final Year

The Seniors had a very busy final year at PCHS. They began earning money in the fall to pay for the class trip. The Seniors sold magazine subscriptions and Stanley products. During football and basketball seasons, they worked in the concession stand. As they ordered graduation announcements and were measured for caps and gowns, the Seniors realized that their high school years were almost over. Their spring activities included the Senior Class Trip to Nashville, Tenn. and the Junior-Senior Prom. Soon it was time for the big event, Graduation. This was the last time that they would all be together, as they would soon be going their separate ways.

Homecoming Big Success for Student Council

As in past years, planning Homecoming was the main responsibility of the Student Council. The Council organized the annual parade, chose the theme "Red Man — Dead Man" for Homecoming Week, and decorated for the dance. This year was the most profit making year that the Council ever had. The Student Council sponsored a canned food drive to help needy families during Christmas time. The 1982-83 Student Council did a fine job of representing their classmates and had a great year.

National Honor Society Very Large and Very Active

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY MEMBERS — Bottom Row, Left to Right: Lisa House, Shari Caupert, Beth Bender, Angie Lueker, Kathy Kellerman, Michelle Smith, Kay Pyatt, Missy Crain, Tina Morrow. The 1982-83 National Honor Society was very proud to have so many members that had high grade point averages. The NHS was very active, conducting many meetings throughout the year. The Society selected the following officers: Lisa Whitson — President, Beth Bender — Vice-President, Connie Epplin — Secretary, Gay Lynn Opp — Treasurer, Lisa House — Student Council Representative, and Kathy Kellerman — Alternate. Starting out the year, the NHS decorated a car for the Homecoming Parade and entered the pep club banner contests. Various great speakers included Therese Lyons and Sharon Baker who lectured on the Operation Snowball program which deals with teenage drug and alcohol problems. Continuing on in the year, the NHS had a Christmas party, held a financial aid seminar for college-bound juniors and seniors, and finally honored the senior NHS members and their parents with a Spring Banquet. The National Honor Society, helped by their sponsor Mrs. Lularose Wilson, had a very prosperous year.

JRS

The Junior Class Congress members were elected early in the year by their fellow classmates. They held many meetings and made important decisions in hopes of creating the best prom possible for the graduating seniors. They began their fund-raising activities by selling various merchandise from QSP, a fund-raising corporation. They also increased their treasury by selling Panther mugs around the school and during home basketball games. The Juniors really showed class spirit during these two fund-raising activities.

After the money was earned, the Junior Class Congress sat down and selected a number of themes out of which the class chose "Magical Moments," a far-away dream land. The Congress then selected a blue, silver, and white color theme and chose prom favors which resembled miniature class rings.

Small vocal ensemble.

Chorus was very active this year, performing for various activities throughout the community. They tried something new this year by creating a smaller vocal ensemble, composed of ten members, which did much of the touring. This group performed at the Chamber of Commerce, Lions Club, Perry Manor Nursing Home, the Gardens High Rise, and the Easter Seal Radiothon. The full Chorus performed during Christmas at Perry Manor and at the Christmas Concert, a concert with the Jazz Band, Senior Recognition Concert, and Baccalaureate. By combining hard work with dedication, this group has become a fine part of the music department at PCHS.

Doug Mohr relaxes before marching in the Apple Festival parade.

1. Shari Caupert concentrates on leading the Marching Panthers in the West Frankfort parade.
2. Snares stand fast after their performance of "Birdland."
3. Marching Panthers rehearse their routine to the drum solo.
4. The town enjoys the band's part in the Homecoming parade.

The 1982-83 Marching Panthers began their summer band schedule on Monday, August 9. They rehearsed from 9 — 12 a.m. every weekday. After school started, they practiced on Tuesday evenings for 2 hours.

All this hard work and dedication gave the Marching Panthers another award-winning year. They won the Mt. Vernon Sweetcorn and Watermelon Festival and the Salem Little Egypt Festival parades. The flags, rifles, and poms also won Best Auxiliary Group at the West Frankfort field show. The Marching Panthers ended their fall season by marching at an SIU football game.

The East Peoria Raiders, led by Mr. Vroman's father, were the Panthers' guests at Madri Gras, and joined the concert band at the EIU Celebration in Charleston. They performed three numbers with Pinckneyville, and played a short concert by themselves.

The Panther Pep Band is a group of band members that volunteer to come early, rehearse, and then perform at home basketball games. They always make their presence known by cheering and playing such tunes as "Go Big Blue" and "Sweet Georgia Brown" as the players come on the floor. They also exhibited school spirit by making posters and entering them in Pep-Club sponsored contests. Every poster entered by the band won an award.

A group of Pep Band members recorded a tape to send to the IHSA, hoping to be chosen to play at the state basketball tournament. The group for the fourth year in a row made the "Sweet Sixteen," but wasn't included in the performing bands. They also returned to Carbondale this year to perform at a Saluki basketball game.

A jazz band was formed this year, consisting of 17 members and one vocalist. This group shared a successful concert with the Chorus.

The Concert Band performed their annual Christmas and Winter concerts. They also hosted Sparta and Chester at Tri-City this year. Concert Band received a first at Organizational contest, and honored the seniors at the Senior Recognition Concert.

Four students were chosen to participate in the EIU Honor Band. They were: David Crumbacher, Shannon Clark, Shari Caupert, and Tina Morrow.

The band finished off their year by marching at the Rend Lake Parade.

Mr. Vroman directs the band in the National Anthem.

Variety Show and Dance

As in past years, the Future Farmers of America is an organization that is busy all year round. They participate in many contests and do very well in everything they participate in. The FFA Sponsor, Mr. Sam Robb, is more than just a teacher and an advisor to the young men and women that are in FFA; he is a source of guidance to them and most of all he is their friend. Along with Mr. Robb, the student ag teacher Mr. Scott Page also helped the FFA members.

Even before the "green" freshmen are initiated into the FFA, the club starts participating in the many contests, judgings, and shows that have become familiar to all FFA clubs throughout the country. Some of these include: Ag Mechanics Contest, Section 24 Crops Judging, State Crops Judging, Horse Judging Contest, Parliamentary Procedure Contest, Section 24 Fatstock Judging, State Livestock Judging, Section 24 Dairy Judging, State Dairy Judging, Section 24 Farm Management, FFA Livestock Show, Ag Mechanics Show, Poultry and Grain Show, Section 24 Soil Judging, Section 24 Tractor Driving, Section 24 Foundation Awards, and Creed Contests.

Receiving State FFA Farmer Degrees this year were David Loos, Raymond Baudison, and Caroline Ruppert. A lot of hard work goes into preparing for this honor and it is well deserved. At the Illinois State Fair on August 5, 1982 Doug Bauersachs won 6th place in the State Tractor Operator Contest.

This past summer, on August 12 and 13, 1982, our male FFA members won 1st Place Consolidation Bracket Champs in the State FFA Softball Tournament. As a new activity this year, the FFA sponsored the annual Heart Fund for the Helen Kuykendall Chapter for raising money to donate to the hospital for heart equipment. They did a good job in organizing a variety show and a dance.

Because FFA is an all-year round organization, it is hard to list all the many activities in which they participate. It is important to understand that all FFA members, male and female alike, put a lot of hard work into what they do because they believe in the preservation of the agricultural community in the United States and abroad.

French Club Helps Sponsor Foreign Language Fair

The French club began this year's activities by decorating a car for Homecoming week and by putting up a stand at Mardi Gras. They then combined with the Spanish Club and took a trip to West Port Plaza in St. Louis. Both clubs then sold international Candies, had a Christmas party, sold carnations for Valentine's Day, and attended the Foreign Language Day at SIU-C, where the can-can dancers took 3rd place. The clubs then decided to try a Foreign Language Fair of their own. All of the foreign language classes participated and the outcome was good. Posters as well as scrapbooks and slides were displayed, food was sold, and the can-can dancers once again entertained the crowd. The club then concluded the year by electing the 1983-84 officers.

Ten Spanish Students Travel to Mexico

The Spanish Club once again started the year by taking their annual trip to West Port Plaza. They participated in Homecoming activities by entering a decorated vehicle in the parade.

Mardi Gras was a busy time for the Spanish Club members. They sponsored a taco and burrito stand, and sold chances for a "break the piñata" game.

The Spanish Honor Society gained seven new members who were initiated into the Society on May 5. Ten members also traveled to Mexico on June 22. During their ten day trip they visited Mexico City, the silver-mining town of Taxco, and the beautiful beaches of Acapulco where they had a very enjoyable time.

Along with the French Club, they held their Christmas party, sold carnations and international candies, and participated at Foreign Language Day at SIU-C. The clubs also tried something new this year by starting their own Foreign Language Day for all the Spanish and French students and their families. They concluded the year by having a spring picnic at the fairgrounds and electing officers for the 83-84 school year.

The Pinckneyville Panther Golf team teed-off to another terrific season finishing with a record of 19-1. Their only loss was a tie which they lost in a playoff. The golfers started off their season by capturing first place in the Nashville Invitational tournament. This year the Panthers hosted a Six-team Invitational tournament in which they placed third.

The Southwest Egyptian Conference tournament proved to be a challenge for the Panthers where they finished in fourth place. They continued on to the regional where they placed third. This qualified them for the IHSA Sectionals held at Rend Lake, where they took fifth place.

Panther golfers Marc Johnson and Thad Woodside were chosen Co-MVP's by their teammates. Marc advanced to the IHSA State Finals and finished with a score of 179. Marc was also chosen to be on the All-Southern Illinois Golf Team.

The Lady Panther Varsity Basketball Team, under third-year head coach Neva Corn, ended their season with a record of 11 wins and 11 losses. They ranked fourth in the Southwest Egyptian Conference, tied with Carlyle.

Some of this year's highlights included a second place finish in the Coulterville Round-Robin Tournament and placing three team members on the All-Tournament team. Other high points included hard-fought, regular season victories over Nashville, DuQuoin, Sparta, Anna-Jonesboro and McLeansboro and a second place finish in the Regional Tournament at Sparta. The Lady Panthers had beaten DuQuoin for the third time this year in the second round of the regional before losing to the host school in the finals.

The Lady Panther Junior Varsity, with Dan Herbst in his first year as their coach, finished with a record of nine wins and six losses. Some JV highlights included their two victories over Carlyle — one in overtime and the other a one point victory with that margin provided by Mary Beth Hagene's one and bonus free throws with three seconds left in the game. Other highlights included close-game victories in defensive battles with Chester and McLeansboro and a win against Anna-Jonesboro in which all players scored.

At the awards banquet, junior varsity letters were awarded to Karla Denman, Maureen Hiller, Staci Starkweather, and Shelly Hartstirn. As well, Carolyn Kellerman received a two-year junior varsity certificate. Receiving varsity letters for the first time were: Traci Chapman, Beth Davis, Mary Beth Hagene, Stacy Hartstirn, Colleen Hiller, Nancy Keene, Tina Morrow, and managers Beth Emling, Kim Hill, and Leslie Ogilvie. Second year varsity certificates went to Julie Folden, Lisa Whitson and scorekeeper Alice House. Nancy Craig was given a plaque for receiving four varsity letters in basketball in her high school career.

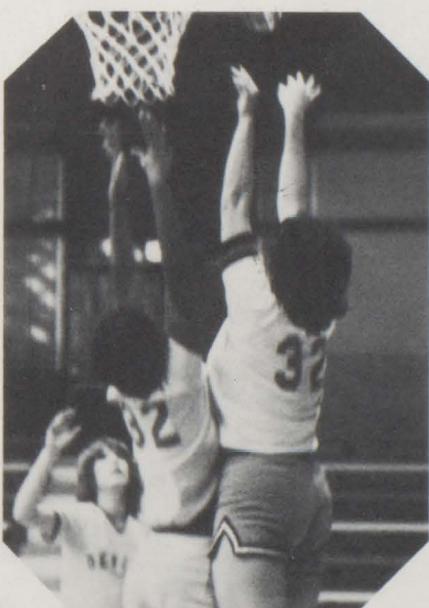

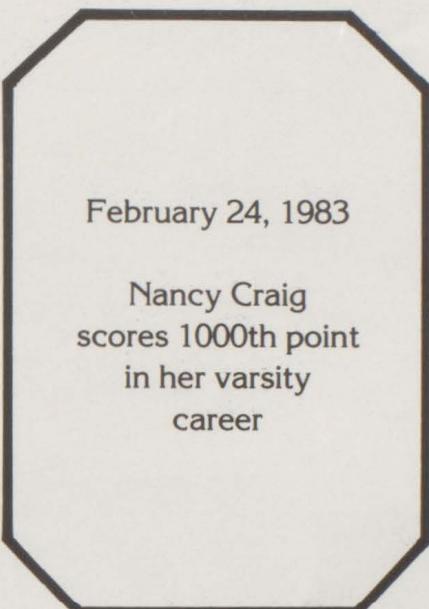

Individual awards voted by the varsity players were given to Julie Folden, Most Improved Player and Nancy Craig, Best Defensive Player and Most Valuable Player. Other awards were certificates given to Nancy and Julie for making the Southwest Egyptian All-Conference Team, chosen by all of the conference coaches.

Panthers receive regional award.

The boys Varsity Basketball Panthers had an up and down year, finishing with a 13-15 record. The highlight of the season was winning their eighth straight regional championship, a streak which has lasted for all of Coach Dick Corn's eight seasons as head coach.

This was a rebuilding year for the Panthers as many underclassmen saw a great deal of varsity action and gained valuable varsity experience. The "Big Blue" squad has much to look forward to in the next few years based on the success of the underclass teams since the junior varsity, sophomores, and freshmen finished with records of 15-3, 10-5, and 14-6 respectively.

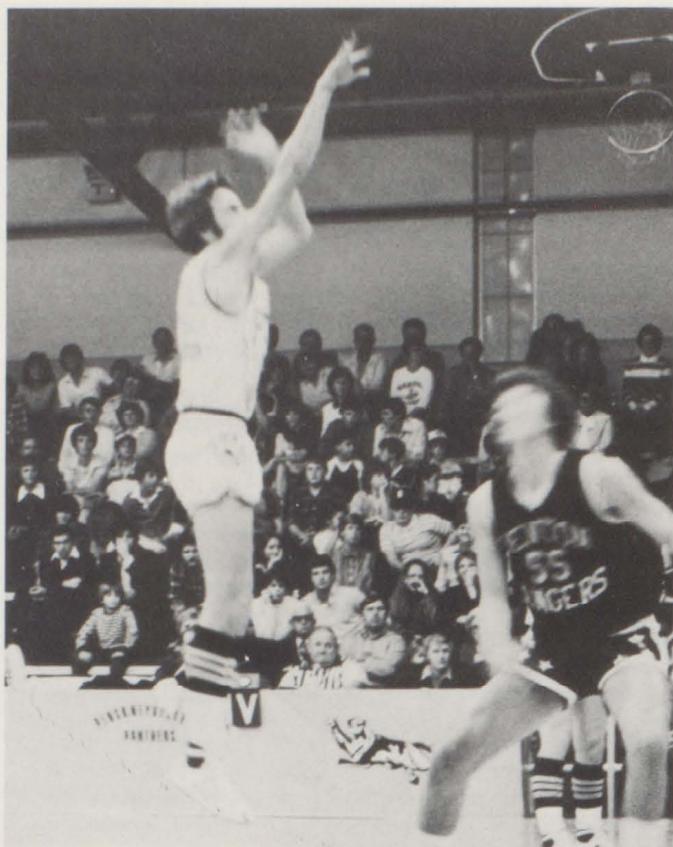

The Varsity team had some exciting moments as they won hard-fought victories at home against eventual SWE Conference champion Sparta and eliminated Nashville from the conference race with a one-point win late in the season. The Panthers beat the conference champ Bulldogs in the finals of the regional to show their strength over the Randolph County school. The Junior Varsity won their last seven games and fifteen of their last sixteen after two losses at the beginning of the season. The Sophomores won the consolation championship of the Murphysboro tournament to wind up their season on a positive note, and the Freshmen won the conference tournament to highlight their season.

The Panthers will miss the play of graduating seniors Steve Huggins, Mike Millikin, Tim Robinson and MVP Brook Walton, but with the fine showing by the underclassmen, the winning tradition of Pinckneyville High School basketball looks to be in good shape for the future.

Special Olympians Compete at Carbondale

Four PCHS students participated in the annual Special Olympics held at Blyer's Field in Carbondale on April 28. They were accompanied by the PCHS Marching Panthers who opened the day's events with "Spirit of Spain" and the "Star Spangled Banner."

All four of our participants entered the softball throw, with Francis Pittman bringing home a gold medal for her first place finish, David Forys winning second, and Diane Brand and Kenny Downen both getting fourth.

Today the Special Olympics span the globe. For the next International Games over a million handicapped in 50 countries will participate in 11,000 events. Whether in the United States or any other country, the Special Olympic goal is still the same: Let me win, but if I cannot win, Let me be brave in the attempt.

Our Special Olympians truly are "special."

Senior Athletes Honored at All Sports Banquet

1. MVP's Nancy Craig and Brook Walton.
2. Julie Folden and Lisa Whitson display Democrat "Hustle" Awards.
3. Thorn Keene receives Country Company Award from Jim McGranahan.
4. David Carns receives "Hustle" Award from Neal McDaniel.

The All Sports Banquet was held May 16 and honored many outstanding senior athletes. The Country Companies Award for Athlete and Academic Achievement was given to Lisa Whitson and Thorn Keene. David Carns received the Democrat Hustle Award for the boys while Lisa Whitson and Julie Folden were co-recipients for the girls. Nancy Craig and Brook Walton were voted the MVP's this year. Nancy was also recognized for scoring over 1,000 points in basketball during her four years at P.C.H.S.

In past years a guest speaker had presented the program, but this year Glen Hamilton showed an enjoyable slide presentation, which he put together from pictures he had taken throughout the year.

Scenes from the Heart Fund Variety Show

The 1982-83 Heart Fund Fair was a very big success, having brought in $2,000. The money was then gladly donated to the Pinckneyville Community Hospital for heart-monitoring equipment. The six Variety Show acts which helped raise the money were: 1st place — Michelle and Wade Hanks; the French Club's can-can; VICA's quintet "Alabama II"; the Science Club's "Wipe Out;" and National Honor Society and FHA's "Side by Side" and "Swingin'", respectively. The Emcees for the show were Doug Mohr and John Caupert from FFA.

Remembrances of the 1983 Senior Class Trip

On April 29, 1983, the Seniors departed on the annual class trip to Nashville, Tennessee. For many this trip would hold memories that would never be forgotten. Despite the rainy weather that lasted the entire weekend, the Seniors had a good time and enjoyed themselves. On the Friday evening they arrived in Nashville, the Seniors visited the Grand Ole Opry where they saw a variety of performers including Roy Acuff and Bill Anderson. Bright and early Saturday morning the Seniors traveled to Opryland, U.S.A. where they enjoyed a fun-filled day. Later that evening they ate a delicious meal and listened to entertainment provided by the Four Guys Harmony House. After visiting the home of Andrew Jackson on Sunday morning, the Class of '83 got on the bus to travel home to Pinckneyville.
